

My name is George Mann, I live 6 and half miles east of Hayes Center and am a member of the Nebraska Sheep and Goat Association. I'm interested in being on your board of directors. I have a small farm flock of registered Targhee ewes, selling breeding stock, promoting high quality wool and sound sheep. A little bit of my background is as follows:

Member of the US Targhee Association since 1967

Assistant head shepherd of University of Wisconsin early 1970s

Associate degree in Animal Science at U of W 1967

In sheep business over 60 years

Reg Targhee business since 1967

Past president of Wisconsin Sheep breeders coop

Past vice president of Wisconsin livestock breeders association

Part of ASI legislative council in the 1990s
